

Useful language:

- Let's check your temperature...
- Breathe in/breath out deeply.
- I'll give you some medicine...
- He is going to feel better soon.
- Thank you very much, doctor!
- Hi, how are you today?
- I feel great, thank you. What about you?
- I am not so good./ I don't feel well.
- What's the matter?
- I have a headache/a stomachache/ a backache/ a cold/ a cough/ a chest pain/ a toothache/ an earache/ high blood pressure/ the flu/ diarrhea/ a sore throat/ nausea/ a fever/ an infection
- You should get some rest.
- You should stay in bed today.
- I had an accident and I broke my leg.
- I cut myself and I'm bleeding.
- I'll bind you up.
- I feel (a little) dizzy.
- I have a rash. It's so itchy!
- I'll buy you a cream to soothe the itch.
- Poor you! I hope you get better soon!/ I hope you heal quickly!
- I'll give you a vaccine shot.
- I fell down the stairs and broke my arm.

Part 1. Answer the questions:

1. Why are the mother and the son at the doctor's office?
2. How does the doctor examine the boy?
3. Why does one of the neighbours not feel good today?
4. What advice does the other neighbour give the one who doesn't feel good?
5. Why can't the man eat the meal with his family?
6. Is the boy allowed not to go to school today? Why or why not?
7. How did the boy injure himself skiing?
8. Why did the elder man feel dizzy?

Part 2. Talk about yourself.

1. Do you drink tea when you don't feel good?
2. Have you ever cut your finger while cooking?
3. Is your health good in general?
4. Are you allergic to anything?
5. How do you spend time when you are sick and stay home?

Part 3. Write your dialogue about a visit at the doctor's office.

WORKSHEET: Health and Illnesses Conversation - based on Easy English
<https://youtu.be/RLG8Nyve2vg>